2008 SELECTION PANEL OF JUDGES

JOHN MACDONALD

John McDonald (b.1961) is art critic for the Sydney Morning Herald. He is a professional writer, but has also worked as a lecturer and editor, and was Head of Australian Art at the National Gallery of Australia.

CATH BOWDLER

Cath Bowdler is currently the Manager of the Wagga Wagga Art Gallery. She has previously lectured at Charles Darwin University in Art theory and been the Director of 24HR Art in Darwin. She has been published widely in Australian art journals including Art Monthly, Artlink and Realtime and has recently completed a PhD about Indigenous visual art at the Centre for Cross Cultural Research, ANU. Her recent curatorial and research is focused on indigenous and non-indigenous visual contemporary art in the Northern Territory and regional arts practice.

RICHARD MAUDE

Richard Maude is a visual artist who, over the past 30 years, has maintained his involvement with community by working as an exhibition organizer, curator and visual arts project manager. This work includes the co-ordination of several artist-run-initiatives in the 1970s and '80s, almost nine years as a regional gallery director, then five years as a Sydney gallerist. Recent art practice includes a community photographic project and a series of painted portraits to be exhibited in Sydney late 2008. Richard has lived in the Bega Valley since 2003.

BASIL SELLERS AM, PATRON OF THE BASIL SELLERS ART

Basil Sellers AM, (born 1935, India) A businessman and philanthropist who has made his career breathing life into ailing companies. Basil is a celebrated art collector and patron. His collection spans over 35 years and contains Post War Australian art and many of the European modernists, with a particular interest in the Fauves (1906/7) and the Cubists.

Basil in conjunction with the Ian Potter Museum at the Melbourne University, is the benefactor of the $100,000 Basil Sellers Sporting Art Prize. He is also the patron for the Basil Sellers Sculpture Project, an initiative that will celebrate ten sculptures of sporting icons to be erected at the Sydney Cricket Ground.

Basil Sellers clearly exhibits a long time commitment to the perpetual evolution of Australian's perception, understanding and engagement with the arts.

The Eurobodalla Shire Council would like to acknowledge the invaluable contributions of all the 'Creative Custodians' who have helped Council to present this prestigious event.
